Question 1: Do you agree with the Panel's initial view that P404 does better facilitate Applicable BSC Objective (d) than the current baseline?

Summary

Yes	No	Neutral/No Comment	Other

Responses

Respondent	Response	Rationale
IMServ Europe	Yes	In light of the various and changing operating and governance models being used by many in the Industry, both new and existing parties, it is essential that the Qualification process is dynamic and able to flex and change at speed, as risks and concerns are identified, in order to protect those already operating. The risk of not having this ability is felt by Agents as well as other parties, where new entrants either assume non-conventional models can be supported or, do not have sufficient knowledge to be able to manage the Supplier Hub as is expected.

Responses

Respondent	Response	Rationale
IMServ Europe	Yes and No	The change will not have any immediate effect on our organisation, however in the event that we did need to re-Qualify in any of our roles, the SAD document could potentially include additional/different points to those that we considered at the time of Qualification. We are however happy with this.
